"School for Scandal"—G. H. S.

TO Edward E. Hylton, one of the staunchest supporters of Garfield High School, and a man loved and honored by every Garfield student, we, the class of 1915, dedicate our Benedictus.

"A Happy Pair"—Caleb Rodkliff and "Twin" McCullough

FOREWORD

YOU have before you the "Benedictus" of the class of 1915. It has been our effort to give a comprehensive record of the 1914-15 events of Garfield High School and to add a few dabs here and there, which will show the spirit and general atmosphere of our school. If, in your opinion, we have attained any success in this undertaking, we beg to remind you that much of the credit is due to the three under-classes and the faculty, who have so heartily cooperated with us, and the advertisers who have supported us so generously in a financial way. If, in your opinion, the 1915 book is a failure, we humbly apologize and hope you will remember that "we have done our durndest."

Garfield High School

In September 1912, Garfield High School was opened to the students of the north end of Terre Haute. It was built as a solution to the problem of relieving the over-flowing condition at Wiley, and it was quite timely in accomplishing its purpose. Both the students and the north-end patrons were delighted with the new building. Every one seemed immediately to feel a personal interest in the school which apparently has never waned. Both the principals, Mr. Highley and Mr. Records, have proved themselves eminently well-fitted for the positions they have held; and, indeed, the entire faculty has proved satisfactory. The building itself also has many unique advantages for which the many friends of the institution feel a pardonable pride.

"The Dancing Girl"—Marie Levering

The thing that appeals to the student body as a whole perhaps more than anything else is the athletic facilities offered. There are two gymnasiums, one for the boys and one for the girls, each provided with an ample dressing room containing dressing racks and shower-baths. The gymnasiums are not as large as might have been desirable, but so far have answered their purpose satisfactorily. Behind the building is a large plot of ground which is used for a gridiron in the fall and for tennis courts, base-ball diamond, and running track in the spring. No doubt, the excellent athletic showing Garfield has made so far is due in part, at least, to the stimulus afforded by these advantages.

Printing is the newest and most novel course offered at the school. A good-sized press operated either by electricity or foot-power, with several cases of type, was installed last fall. Several boys and a few girls entered the printing class immediately and from that time on the shop has been kept busy. It prints the "Garfield Review," a popular semi-monthly publication, as well as tickets, programmes, registration blanks and other miscellaneous school work.

The manual training department is another great favorite with the boys. It is composed of two rooms, one containing drawing outfits and supplies and the other work-benches where the actual work is done. The department has turned out many very creditable pieces of work in the form of library tables, porch swings, tabarets, etc.

For the girls both sewing and cooking departments are provided. The cooking room contains a full equipment with gas burners in addition to a large range. The girls have served a number of luncheons prepared entirely by themselves which have been pronounced very successful by those who attended them. The sewing class has also proved quite popular. It has machines and cutting tables. Each girl has a locker for her sewing outfit and there are two large cases in which they keep their work. There are 34 girls taking this course, which shows how well-liked it is by the feminine half of the Garfield family.

The building is laid out somewhat in the form of a square arch laid horizontally with the auditorium representing the open space, and halls and class rooms the other part. At the northwest and northeast corners of the building on both floors are large, well-lighted study rooms. Those on the northeast corner still serve in that capacity, but the others have been divided in half, the upper one containing the Senior session room and a mathematics recitation room, and the lower the commercial and botany departments. In the front on the first floor are the office and the branch library. The latter is open to the public and the large collection of books has been used constantly since it opened.

Upstairs over these rooms are the chemistry and physics laboratories. The chemistry laboratory is well equipped in every way and can comfortably accommodate 12 people and, if necessary, more than that. The physics room has not as yet all the equipment really necessary, but it is hoped that within a very short time it will have as complete an outfit as any of the other departments.

The rest of the first and second floors is taken up with class rooms.

The auditorium is a spacious place with a seating capacity of about 550. The stage is fairly large and the rooms back of it are arranged so as to serve conveniently for dressing rooms when theatricals are being given by the students. There have been mass meetings in the auditorium not less than two weeks apart and sometimes much oftener for the last year. These meetings do much to promote school spirit and create an interest in school activities aside from school work proper and they are quite popular with the students.

"The Twin Sisters"—Ruby and Ruth.

The student activities are manifold and there is an exceedingly small number of people in Garfield who have not an interest in at least one of the many organizations, such as the Orchestra, the Glee Club, the Tennis Club, the Public Speaking Society, etc. Thus every student feels that he is really a part of the school and has a personal responsibility in the well-being of the school. Combine this spirit with the stimulus afforded by the vocational courses offered by Garfield, and it is easy to see why the school has been so eminently successful thus far.

SENIOR

1915

"Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary"—Mary Harvey

VESTA ADAMS

Vesta is one of those energetic students who forged ahead to graduate with the class of '15. She seldom makes much noise but when it comes to brains, Oh my! She gives promise of being a Domestic Science star when she grows up.

BEN ANTHONY

Ben is the most famous exponent of that old saying, "Count ten before you speak". His future lies between a German professorship and a side-show barker job.

ANITA ALLEN

Usher at Senior play, B. B. '15. Anita is Gladys's right hand man and is the other lady who makes life miserable for the teachers in 28A. Anita has a mania for changing her name.

ROBERT BAYLES

President of class, '13-'14; Loren Higbee in "Higbee of Harvard"; Billy Merril in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Senior Board of Directors; Glee Club; Tennis Club; A. A. member; Review Staff, '13-'14; County Representative in State Discussion League meet. "Tom" is a hustler.

LENA ANDREWS

Judy in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Senior Basket-ball Captain; Glee Club; A. A. member; Tennis Club. Lena is one of the most loyal and best liked members of the '15 class.

"The Wonder"—Jim Conover

GLADYS ARMSTRONG

Usher at "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; A. A. member; Senior Basket-ball. Can be found wherever Anita Allen is. She is one of the ones who make life miserable for the study room teachers of 28A.

HOWARD BELL

Ass't. editor of "Review" '13-'14; Member Debating Society, '13-'14; Represented Vigo County in Ind. University Discussion, '13; Sidney Hilton in "Kingdom of Heart's Content'. Howard entered from Newport where he was a member of the baseball team and editor of the "Newport Flashlight".

GLADYS BROWN

Usher at "Higbee of Harvard" and "Kingdom of Heart's Content". She is the one best bet of the '15 class when it comes to studies. She is an exceedingly modest maiden, but admired by the boys for a' that.

CHARLES BRESETT

Benedictus staff; A. A. member; Senior Basket-ball; Garfield Tennis Team. Charley is the "enthusiasm kid" of the Benedictus staff. However, he has many other interests, chief of which is a young lady.

INEZ BURK

Madge Lansing in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Tennis Club; Board of Control '14; Usher at "Higbee of Harvard"; Girls' Glee Club '14. Inez is a prima donna and a poetess. She showed unusual talent in the play and is "some dancer."

JANET CASTO

Frances Palmer in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Secretary of Onaway Camp Fire; A. A. member. Janet is one of the most active girls of the Senior class besides being a "shark" in her studies.

HARVEY CLARK

A. A. member; Debating Society; Ticket man at "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; State Discussion League. Clark is usually a quiet, unassuming fellow, but when it comes to oratory he bursts forth with noble eloquence that would shame W. J. Bryan.

FRIEDA FERGUSON

Athletic Association; Reporter for Campfires; Senior Basketball. Frieda performed in a recent oratorical contest and promises to be a shining star along literary lines. Frieda has a temper and it is also rumored that she has a "case".

JOHN COMOFORD

A. A. member; Stagehand "Kingdom of Heart's Content". Johnny is laboratory assistant and Mr. Powers' pet, and consequently could not be expected to mingle with the common herd. But he is not at all vain and is exceedingly well-liked throughout the school.

JEWEL FERGUSON

Usher at "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Camp-fire Girl; Tennis Club; Basket-ball '12, '13, '14. Jewel wouldn't let her brilliant sister get ahead of her, so she completed the course in three and one-half years. Jewel holds the important position of buying fashion sheets for the sewing department.

"The Irish Artist"—"Pat" Freeman

BERNICE FORBES

Bernice is another one of those who took advantage of opportunity and finished the course in three and one-half years. She is quiet and reserved, but very well liked. Bernice is an active member of the camp-fire girls.

FRANK DAVID

Class Treasurer '14-15; Miles Alden in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; A. A. member; Review Staff, '14-'15; Dutch Shark. What time he can spare from guarding the treasures of the '15 class, Frank usually spends making life miserable for the teachers.

DOROTHY FREEMAN

Benedictus Artist; Eloise Elmer in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Senior Basketball. Dorothy is just a little bit of a girl, but when it comes to good looks and artistic ability she is all there. We'll bet a dollar to a doughnut she'll be a famous artist some day.

CUDDIE DAVIDSON

President Class '14-'15; Benedictus Staff; Review Staff; Debating Society. Cuddie has certainly had his hands full this year, but he has filled his office in great shape. We're sure he'll be a success when G. H. S. is his Alma Mater.

MERCEDES HALL

President of Wallah Camp Fire; A. A. member; Usher at "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Tennis Club. She was not on the Benedictus staff, but gave us some valuable help in getting out this book. Mercedes is the hustlinest hustler in the Senior class.

MARY HARVEY

Mary is a very modest maiden and spends her time as she should. Mary shines in all kinds of Mathematics and some day G. H. S. will be proud to claim her.

EMORALD DAVIS

Football, '14; Varsity Basketball, '14-'15; A. A. member. "Cy" came to us last fall from Dugger. He immediately won a place in the hearts of Garfield fans by his great work in football. He repeated in basketball and gives promise of being a track star.

ANNA HESS

Anna entered G. H. S. last year from Brazil. She is the youngest member of the Senior Class and one of the most brilliant. Her ability to argue is remarkable for one so young.

GEORGE DEFEL

Tennis Club; A. A. member; Stage hand "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Custodian '15. George is a Chemistry shark. That recommends him more highly than any other words we can think of. He once held John Comoford's cherished position as laboratory flunky.

JENNIE HOUSTON

Usher at "Higbee of Harvard". Jennie is a full-fledged Normalite now, but left lots of friends at Garfield. Jennie isn't very large, but she knows a good deal and has a fine, large disposition.

HARRIET HUBBARD

Millicent Merril in "Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Nancy in "Higbee of Harvard", Senior Board of Directors; Tennis Club; A. A. member; Review Staff, '13-'14; Vice-Pres. of class, '13-'14. "Hattie" is one of the most popular and best-looking girls in the class.

ARTHUR ERVIN

Business manager of Benedictus; A. A. member; Orchestra, '13-'14. "Art" has worked like a Trojan on this year's book, and if it has success he will deserve a great deal of the credit. He is a lady's man and shines in Trig. and Physics.

JULIA KELLY

Usher at "Kingdom of Heart's Content". Julia is right on hand when there is any work to do. She was never known to frown and is quite fond of gathering botany specimens.

ROSCOE EVANS

Track, '13; Athletic Association. Roscoe is the best sprinter in the Senior Class. He also shines at Manual Training. He threatens to become a farmer when through G. H. S.

HELEN LARSON

Athletic Association; Basketball, '12, '13, '14; Tennis Club; Kathryn Peters in "The College Ball"; Gretchen Lansing in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Girls' Glee Club, '14. Helen is certainly "some" actress.

Anna Hess – "And say kid –".

EVA LEE

Usher at "Higbee of Harvard"; Judy in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content". Eva is a lady with a fine disposition and has an "out of town case." She also supplies the Chemistry class with eats.

CARL FISHER

Burglar in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Athletic Board of Control, '14-'15. "Fish's" life work is to make things miserable for the overseers of 28A. He also sells tickets for all athletic events.

IRENE MADDEN

Dixie Davis in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Benedictus Staff. "Man Hater". Irene is one of the fairest maidens in Garfield. Her admirers in the school are legion, but apparently she has set her heart on a member of the faculty.

OWEN FLOYD

Varsity Basket-ball, '13-'14, '14-'15; Basket-ball captain, '14-'15; Track '13-'14, '14-'15; Foot-ball, '14; President Athletic Association; Tennis Club. "Slivers" is probably the best all-round athlete in school. He is also a lady-killer and an orator.

BLANCHE MARTIN

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content". Blanche has "stuck right with the ship" during all four years. She has one of the sunniest dispositions ever, and is an accomplished musician.

Miss Bader—"Take this assignment for tomorrow."

ELEANOR MAYROSE

Vice-President Class, '12-'13; Benedictus Staff; Shirley Hathaway in "The Kingdom of Hearts Content"; Usher at Junior play; Tennis Club; A. A. member. Eleanor is a busy little lady with lots and lots of friends.

PAUL FUQUA

Orchestra, '14-'15; Tennis Club. Paul, while not a member of the staff, has given us some mighty valuable help on this year's book. He's not a loud-mouthed cuss and never toots his own horn, but is mighty well-liked by everyone.

PEARL MILLER

Pearl kept very quiet during all four years, but was right on hand when there was work to do or grades to get.

RALPH HANES

"Hanesy" is a very likable chap, though not exceedingly noisy. He is somewhat of a Dutch shark and gives promise of developing into a baseball star under Capt. Oxford's instruction.

JANE NEUKOM

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content". Jane is a peach. She doesn't talk much, but says something when she does. Jane doesn't put much faith in the men, but isn't without masculine admirers.

Helen Kingery—"Well, Bill said—"

HELENA O'LEARY

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Usher at Higbee of Harvard"; Tennis Club. Helena is taking spelling and seems to be doing well. She hails from old Erin and is proud of it.

WALTER HAUCK

Benedictus Staff; Review Staff, '14-'15; Senior Basketball; Athletic Ass'n. member. "Hauckie" is one of the charter members of Hutchinson's rest cure for the Knights of Neverwork. He is also afflicted with a case.

LOUISE SCHUBERTH

Secretary of class, '13-'14; Review Staff; Orchestra; Senior Basketball; Vice-President of Tennis Club; A. A. member; Camp-fire. Louise is an exceedingly literary person and we will be greatly surprised if she does not some day become famous in that line.

ARTHUR KROCKENBERGER

Orchestra, '12-'13, '13-'14, '14-'15; A. A. member. "Art" is becoming quite a violinist. He is also a Manual Training shark. It is rumored that he has a case, but the name of the young lady has not been discovered.

ETHEL SIMPSON

Ethel has been a most faithful member of the class all four years. She is a Domestic Science and Chemistry shark.

George Defel—"When the cat's away the mice will play".

MARIE SMITH

Malvina in "Higbee of Harvard"; Tillie in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Vice-President of X. Y. O. W. Marie showed rare ability as an actress in both the Junior and Senior plays. She should be a star in that line if she took it up as a life work.

PAUL LOSER

Treasurer of Class, '13-'14; Benedictus Staff; Football, '14; Senior Basketball; Tennis Club; Debating Society; Ralph Lawrence in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Higbee in "Higbee of Harvard". "Tub's" greatest claim to fame is his argufying ability.

HARRIET THURSTON

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Tennis Club. Harriet is a firm advocate of woman's suffrage and has a reputation for her brilliant history remarks. She thinks she will soon take up pedagogy.

GEORGE MURPHY

Editor-in Chief of Review, '14-'15; President Debating Society, '15; Track, '13; Stagehand "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; A. A. member; State Discussion League Alternate, '14; "Pie Fiend". "Murph" was the first purchaser of a 1915 Benedictus. He has done fine work on the Review.

RUTH WEDDLE

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content;" Camp-fire. Ruth has taken up Domestic Science and promises to be a shining light in that line. She is also good in English.

Dorothy Freeman—"Pussy! Pussy!"

ZAZEL WHEELER

Vice-President of Class '15; Secretary, '14; Basket-ball, '12-'13, '13-'14, '14-'15; Basket-ball Captain, '13-'14; Athletic Board of Control, '14; Amy Dean in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content". Zazel is athletically inclined, but is not without literary instincts. She is an accomplished writer of sonnets.

THOMAS MURPHY

"Tom" needed only one more credit to graduate this year and consequently went to school only a short time. Naturally, he is not as well acquainted among the class as his brother George, but those who know him say he's every bit as fine a fellow.

RUBY WHITE

Secretary of Class, '14-'15; Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content." Ruby, besides being a shark in all her studies, is an all around good girl. She is an accomplished "cookess", but hates to wash dishes. Ruby is famous for her raven locks.

WALLACE MYER

"Wallie" is the big boy who owns an automobile. The Seniors will never forget the refreshments he furnished at the Senior hay-ride. Manual Training is his particular hobby, and he built a library table which was a work of art.

MAGGIE WILLIAMS

Maggie doesn't ever make much noise, but is ever ready with a pleasant smile. She is a History shark and is an accomplished seamstress.

S. R. Powers—"What will you have? What will you have?

BLANCHE WINKLES

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; A. A. member; Camp-fire. Blanche is stationed in 28A where she can see all that s going on in the hall and is consequently a valuable information bureau. She has been a faithful worker wherever she's been.

FRANK NITTERHOUSE

Football, '12, '13, '14; Basketball, '12-'13; Track, '13-'14. "Nitter" made the all-state football team last year. He would also have been the champion shot-putter of the state had he not stepped out of the circle wrong.

RUTH WIRES

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; A. A. member; Basketball, '14; Vice-President Wallah Camp-fire. Ruth is another Domestic Art shark, and besides having beautiful golden locks she has an "awful" case.

PEARL OXFORD

Football, '14; Varsity Basketball, '13-'14; Senior Basketball; Athletic Board of Control, '14-'15. "Pearly" is a mighty good all-round athlete for a man of his size. In addition to football and basketball, he is a star at baseball, and runs the mile and pole-vaults sensationally.

NINA WRIGHT

Nina entered G. H. S. last year. She has not been long amongst us, but has made a great many friends and we are all sorry she didn't appear sooner. Nina is an English shark.

Wilbur Johnson—"Has the tardy bell rung yet?"

PAUL RHOADS

Editor-in-Chief of Benedictus; President of Class, '12-'13; Varsity Basketball, '13-'14, '14-'15; Athletic Board of Control, '13-'14; Debating Society; Tennis Club; Senator Withrow in "Higbee of Harvard"; Tom Lansing in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content".

ESTELLE WYNKOOP

Usher at "The Kingdom of Heart's Content". Estelle is the champion book reader. She doesn't neglect her work, however, and is a shining light in Chemistry.

AARON RICHARDSON

Tennis Club; A. A. member. Aaron is a sensation in the tennis line and should make a fine showing this year. He is also a Chemistry shark. If you don't think so, ask Mr. Powers.

MARGARET ZERBE

Mrs. Ballou in "Higbee of Harvard"; Mrs. Wilberton in "The Kingdom of Heart's Content"; Athletic Association; Board of Directors. Margaret came to us from St. Mary's, Ohio, in our Junior year. She stepped right out, however, and is usually termed "one grand girl."

FRANK THROOP

Benedictus Staff; Tennis Club; Debating Society, '14; A. A. member. If you think "Throopie" is good looking from this picture you ought to see him in his derby hat. He is a star in Chemistry, having finished one unknown in two weeks.

T. W. Records—"Now, just one more word".

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OPENS

MISS WHEELER SPEAKS

At Coliseum. Scores Bayles and Davidson

The Presidential campaign opened with a speech in the Coliseum by Miss Zazel Wheeler, the popular suffragist candidate. The speaker was introduced by Lena Andrews, LL. D., the recently elected representative from Indiana. Miss Wheeler dwelt at length upon the corruptness of the machine which has controlled the last administration and made a great plea for cleaner politics.

She scored President Davidson's tariff policy and accused him of partiality in awarding appointive offices, citing the cases of the following: Hon. Arthur Knickenberger, Minister to Germany; Harvey Clark, Secretary of State; Arthur Ervin, Secretary of War; and Charles Bresett, Postmaster of New York City. Each of these, she pointed out, gained his office through being a class-mate of the President and was not chosen because of his ability. However she openly admitted her intention of making Vesta Adams, the prominent Pittsburg slum worker, who was formerly one of her class-mates, Secretary of State in case she is elected. She closed her remarks with a ringing attack on Robert Bayles, the popular Republican presidential candidate, in which she referred to him as "that loud-mouthed, one-horse politician from Indiana."

WITH THE THEATRES

By P. S. Rhoads, Dramatic Critic.

The all-star production of "The Taming of Eglantine", at the Globe last night was a huge success. Miss Irene Madden as Eglantine scored a tremendous hit. Her provoking manner of sticking out her tongue and her winsome smile endeared her immediately to her audience. Eleanor Mayrose, who starred last year in "Dr. Kingsbury's Little Lady" took the juvenile lead. The charming little Hoosier actress was at her best last night and was forced to answer many curtain calls. The part of Barclay, the old chemistry professor, was most ably taken by John Comoford, who jumped into fame last year as Martin in "The Master Key". Mr. Comoford displayed a finished skill in the strong emotional scenes which stamps him as one of the true dramatic stars of today.

At the close of the second act all three stars were called out and presented with beautiful bouquets from the "Garfield Club" of New York. The club is composed of the alumni of Garfield High School, Terre Haute, Ind., who are in New York. Among its number are such celebrities as Jane Neukom, the president of the Knickerbocker Young Ladies' Seminary, Harriet Thurston, the secretary of the School Board, Emorald Davis, president of the N. Y. Giants, and others. Mr. Comoford, being a resident of the city, is a member of the club and Miss Madden and Miss Mayrose are Garfield alumni, although not belonging to the New York organization.

T. W. Records, head of the city schools, has gone to Maine for a short vacation. Mr. Records is badly in need of a rest.

ENGINEER AND ARTIST WED

CULMINATION OF ROMANCE

Gathering of Celebrities at Brilliant Affair.

A wedding which attracted much interest among the four hundred because of the romance attached to it took place Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Freeman when their eldest daughter, Dorothy, famed for her portrait painting, became the bride of Mr. Paul Loser, who has won much favorable comment by the bridges which he has constructed for the English Government in India. Mr. Loser first met his bride while she was traveling through India. The brief acquaintance they had was renewed when they both returned to New York and soon ripened into love which culminated Thursday. The bride was attended by six bridesmaids all equally famed with Miss Freeman. They were: Miss Blanche Winkles, famous authoress; Miss Louise Schuberth, known all over the world by her touching poem, "Days Gone By"; Miss Ruby White, whose rendering of "Camille" has been considered unequaled since the days of Sarah Bernhart; Miss Ruth Wires, well known philanthropist; Miss Jennie Huston, celebrated juvenile actress, and Miss Blanche Martin, who has done much in the last three years to reform New York. Among those present were: Misses Mercedes Hall and Anna Hess, who have just returned from Europe where they were Red Cross nurses and where they were decorated with the Iron Cross by Kaiser Wilhelm; Miss Pearl Miller, who has just returned from China as a missionary; Miss Gladys Brown and Janet Casto, who together have translated many of Homer's works.

Divorced Tax Bill Defeated.

The bill for repealing the acts taxing divorced people double has just gone down in inglorious defeat after a stirring speech by Senator Ben Anthony, of Indiana, who rivals his famous namesake in oratory. Mr. Anthony spoke against the bill and it is due mainly to his efforts that it was defeated. The bill was ably defended by Senators Wallace Myer and Ralph Hanes of Illinois.

OLYMPIC TEAM LEAVES FOR VIENNA

Nitterhouse, Floyd, Murphy and Evans, Mainstay of U. S.

The U. S. Olympic team left fifty strong today on the U. S. S. "Columbia" for Vienna to compete in the Olympic games to be held there. Frank Nitterhouse, the famous shot-putter, who is looked upon as a sure winner of first in that event, is expected to break the world's record which he himself holds. In the discus, Owen Floyd is the mainstay of his country. This will be his second performance in the games and he is expected to repeat his good showing of four years ago. George Murphy and Roscoe Evans, the Princeton University stars, are expected to place in the long distance runs and dashes, respectively. Not long ago they equalled the American amateur records in their respective events at the Harvard-Princeton-Yale track meet and they are expected to do even better at Vienna. Curiously enough, these four men, who are considered the stars of the team, got their start at Garfield High School where they were classmates.

NEW YORK WINS SUIT AGAINST AEROPLANE CO.

The law firm of Murphy, Defel and Woolard has won much fame through the winning of the prolonged suit of the city of New York against the International Aeroplane Co. for abuse of its franchise. Although the members of this firm are comparatively young they are doing splendid work and are rising rapidly.

The lawyers for the I. A. Co. were Misses Estella Wynkoop and Nina Wright and though they ably defended the Company, too much evidence was given against the Company, and they lost the case.

Motion Picture Contest Closes.

The motion picture popularity contest which has been conducted by the "Times" for the last two months closed today. Miss Margaret Zerbe, the celebrated star of the Courtney Film Producers, easily won the women's contest with a total of five million votes, one million ahead of her nearest competitor. Frank David, the famous fun-maker, won the men's contest with almost no opposition.

The career of Miss Eva Lee, who made her debut Tuesday, the 24th, in a recital given by Phanowaski, famous pianist, has been assured. Miss Lee plays with consumate skill and technique and her hearers were all delighted.

WANTED.—Violin pupils by Professor Paul Fuqua. Prof. Fuqua has studied under the best teachers abroad and at home and takes only advanced pupils. Terms from $100.00 up according to advancement of pupil.

At a banquet given by Miss Harriet Hubbard, famous hostess to literary, Tuesday, were present: Miss Helena O'Leary, noted for her sparkling Irish wit; Misses Frieda and Jewel Ferguson, famous for their joint novels; Mr. Walter Hauck, whose essays on "women" have won him a name and a fortune; Miss Marie Smith, renouned for her entertaining stories for children; Mr. Aaron Richardson, whose book on "Moses as a Man and a Prophet," has won him much favorable and unfavorable criticism from the literary world.

J. Perkins' famous side-show will be here April 17, 1925.

ATHLETICS

"The Chief Chaperon" — T. W. Records

ROBERT HICKLIN, Capt.

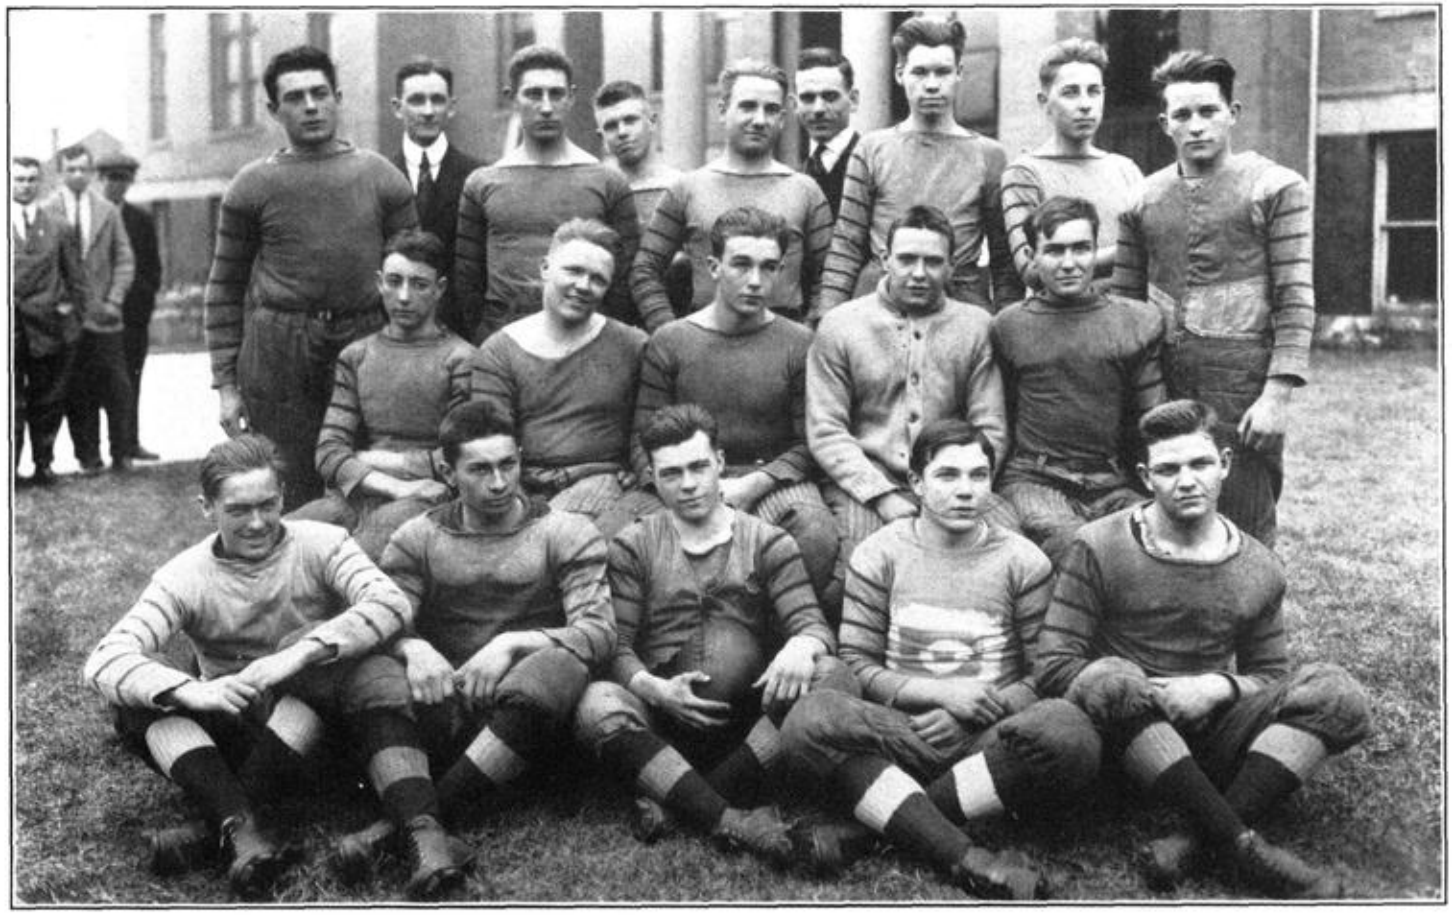
Football, 1914

This year's athletic teams have been the best in Garfield's history. She enjoyed a remarkably successful football season. The most prominent obstacle overcome by the purple and white warriors was their lack of weight. In practically all of her games she was out-weighed on an average of 10 pounds to the man, but what the team lacked in weight it made up for in speed, and as a result she was not fairly beaten by any team in Indiana. It is true she lost to Linton, but as that team was later declared ineligible, it has no bearing on her record. Oakland, an Illinois team, was the only team which did defeat Garfield fairly, and they out-weighed the men from Terre Haute by a large margin. The best home game of the season was probably the one in which Robinson was defeated 18-12. The next two games with Jasonville and Bloomfield, respectively, Garfield also put on the right side of the ledger. She ended up the season in a blaze of glory by defeating Brazil 40-0 before 3 car loads of rooters who accompanied the team.

The following men received "Gs":—Hicklin, Capt., Q. B.; Tingley, F. B.; Davis, H. B.; Floyd, C.; Conover, H. B.; Nitterhouse, T.; Canine, E.; Arbaugh, E.; Perkins, G.; Leatherman, T.; Welch, T.; Loser, G.; Harris, Q. B.; Farmer, F. B. Shea and Broderick received honorable mention for their good work.

Below is the record:

Garfield	18	Robinson	12
Garfield	51	Jasonville	0
Garfield	18	Linton	31
Garfield	16	Bloomfield	7
Garfield	14	Oakland	16
Garfield	40	Brazil	0
	157		66



"Old Curiosity Shop"—Chem. Lab.

OWEN FLOYD, Capt.

Basketball, 1914-1915

Owing to the ineligibility of several basketball stars, the team got away to a bad start. Garfield lost the first two games, but with the return of Gammon and Nash to the fold, came back strong in the third encounter. She kept up this pace throughout the season, losing only three of the remaining games. These went to Vincennes, Brazil, and Clinton, respectively. She had already defeated Brazil in a previous encounter, and took another from Rockville. Following her defeat by Brazil, she won two games from Sullivan and closed the season with brilliant victories over Normal and the Paris Tigers.

Considering the handicap under which the team started the showing made is quite satisfactory.

The following men received basketball "Gs":—Floyd, Capt., F.; Nash, F.; Gammon, C.; Rhoads, G.; Davis, G.; Owen, G.; Burns, F.; Conover, G.; Pence, G.

Below is the record:

Garfield	15	Normal	24
Garfield	22	Vincennes	47
Garfield	44	Rockville	8
Garfield	19	Paris	35
Garfield	44	Brazil	32
Garfield	24	Rockville	12

RUTH FRANKE, Capt.

Girls' Basketball, 1914-1915

The girls' basketball team has been rather unfortunate in not being able to secure games, but the girls have enjoyed the season very much, nevertheless. A large number of girls took part in the indoor sport this year, and they played mostly among themselves. There were only two scheduled contests, one with the South Side Independents, composed chiefly of Wiley girls, and one with Clinton. In both of these games the Garfield girls were victorious. Miss Hanley did not pick a regular varsity squad, but said that if she did, it would probably contain the following players: Mae Andrews, Evelyn Dunsford, centers; Ruth Franke, Edith Lawson, Anna Eddy, Verna Cook, forwards; Thirza Jones, Floy Zerwick, Lula Waggoner, and Olive Carter, guards.

JAMES CONOVER, Capt.

Track, 1914

Garfield's 1914 track team was one of the best in the state. She took part in three meets, coming out first in two of them and second in the third. Captain Smith, Conover, and Cooper represented the school in the dashes; Nitterhouse, Floyd, and Yatsko in the weights; McKee and Fortune in the pole vault; Shannon and Oxford in the long runs; Frey in the broad jump, high jump, hurdles, and 440 yard dash; Nitterhouse in the high jump, and Conover in the broad jump. Prospects for the 1915 team are just as bright, and with Capt. Conover at the helm, Garfield should enjoy another successful season.

Following is the record of the 1914 team:

Garfield	58
Sullivan	41	Garfield	65 2-3
		Wiley	24 1-3
Paris	56	Brazil	7
Garfield	42	Normal	3
Wiley	10

Athlectic Association

The Association began the 1914 season under numerous difficulties, the most serious of which a deficit of forty dollars and only the partial support of the student body. However, in spite of the various fluctuations of spirit, the membership has grown beyond the average. The meetings, although not as well attended as might have been expected, did not lack enthusiasm. At the close of the basketball season the association was financially a success, having a surplus of twenty-five dollars, and it is reasonably safe to suppose that when the 1915 football season opens, there will be a margin to work upon instead of a deficit.

Wallah Camp Fire

The Wallah Camp Fire was organized in 1912 under the guardianship of Miss Georgia Lewis. During the year 1913-1914 Mrs. J. B. Wisely was guardian and much was accomplished during this time. In autumn, 1914, Mrs. T. W. Records became guardian. The camp has had another successful year under her tutelage.

Onaway Camp Fire

The Onaway Camp Fire is an outgrowth of the Wallah Camp, and was organized April 7, 1914. The various activities of the camp last summer included an all day hike, a boat ride and a camping trip. The winter activities consisted of several social events and some charity work. Onaway stood second in a contest among all the Terre Haute camps on Camp Fire work.

Geneshaoh Camp Fire

This camp, composed of Garfield Freshmen, received their charter Nov. 30, 1914. The club was organized under the guardianship of Miss Blanche Van Horn, of the Wallah camp. Already the camp has proved its efficiency by Christmas service, in the way of furnishing clothing and toys to families in extreme poverty.

ACT I.

SCENE: Before the Star refreshment villa.

ENTER TINGLIUS, alone.

Tinglius: Ye Gods, I fain would die. On the morrow will the fair Dutchess be in the stadium to cheer the hosts of Garfield, while I, her hero, do but witness the mighty contest from the outer wall as a mere citizen. Would that the curses of a mortal could avail against the hated Adelia, and the accursed Harriet. O fain, would I die!

ENTER HANKO, the scribe.

Hanko: Why is this sad and woeful look upon thy noble visage, O Tinglius? Hast the fair Dutchess given thee the clammy mitt? Tell me ere I explode with anxiety.

Tinglius: No, beloved Hanko. 'Tis nought of mortals. The Gods have turned against me. I am flunked. Though I have studied valiantly, staggered I but lamely through my German praises to Adelia and unhappily did I forget to hand in my note-book of tribute to Harriet. When the revered Recordo made known the records of us wretched worshipers at the temple of knowledge, I received from Harriet and Adelia a black-ball. I am flunked. Tomorrow in your yellow sheet must you declare that the noble Tinglius is again in bad with the Gods. On Saturday can he not perform deeds of might on the gridiron? Valor will return to the hearts of the Lintonians and the hosts of Garfield will lose the contest. And O Hanko, the fair Dutchess will be in the stadium and I, her hero, will not perform!

ENTER BERNARDO, hastily.

Bernardo, with arm outstretched toward

"Auburn and Freckles"—"Red" LeForge.

Tinglius: Tinglius, thou art a dub! Thou didst not concentrate. Saturday will my athletes lose to the Lintonians because thou didst not pay proper tribute to the Gods. Thou art a dub. [Exit]

ENTER DOGGIA, SROFIUS AND CHARLO.

Charlo: Why this downcast look, O Tinglius? Hast thou lost thy Dutch poem book or hast thou not the price of a hamburger?

Hanko: Cease thy silly prating, corpulent lobster. The valiant Tinglius has incurred the disfavor of the Gods. He cannot enter the mighty contest Saturday. (All groan.)

Tinglius: And the fair Dutchess will be in the stadium.

Srofius: Ah, it is tough. Methinks we will be out of luck.

Doggia: These silly rulings of the Gods give me a pain.

Charlo, with finger to forehead in attitude of thought: Silence, brothers. I wouldst think. Ah, I have it! It is easy. Exam., that is the word, Exam! Tinglius, thou must take an Exam.

Hanko, scornfully: Methought perhaps thou really hadst an idea, thou bloated jelly-fish. Thou knowest quite well that Tinglius is no true worshiper at the shrine of knowledge. In his studies is he well-nigh as rotten as thou, thou ignorant boob. Tinglius cannot withstand the test.

Doggia: Yea, Charlo, an Exam. can Tinglius not take?

Srofius: Ah, thou childish simps. You have not the gray matter of a cat-fish. I am a wise old head, I have thought it out.

Tinglius: Speak, noble Srofius, ere I am consumed with curiosity.

All: Hear, Hear. Srofius speaketh.

Srofius, mounting bench and speaking solemnly: Friends, thou knowest Pencethenes. In his praises to Adelia is he a cat. He spieleth German like the Kaiser. That Exam. could he pass as easily as a man falleth from a log. The ears of Pencethenes waggle to and fro with the agility of a leap-frog. When Tinglius entereth Adelia's shrine can Pencethenes not accompany him in a remote corner and wiggle his ears? It is a pipe.

Doggia: Srofius, thou hast a brain.

Hanko: Srofius, thou hast more intelligence than thy looks indicate.

Tinglius: Srofius, thou hast, indeed, a head!

Charlo: Let us search for Pencethenes ere he depart.

All: Yea, let us find Pencethenes at once. [All Exit.]

ACT II.

SCENE: Shrine of Adelia.

Adelia sits musingly on her throne.

ENTER TINGLIUS.

Adelia: So, Tinglius, thou comest to take thy Exam? I fain would pass thee, but I fear thou hast not faithfully performed thy devotions to me. Yet, will I give thee one more chance. Prepare for the worst.

Tinglius, sitting humbly at her feet: Ah, fair Adelia, make it light. Diligently have I studied, but thy German can I not grasp. But this vain lingering is of no avail. Let 'er flicker. (Glances toward entrance.)

Adelia: Der, die, oder das Mann?

Tinglius, looking anxiously toward entrance: Die Mann.

Adelia: Wrong, Tinglius. Think thou over this one. Der, die, oder das Kind?

Tinglius: Der Kind. Ting., deeply moved, with anxiety gazes toward entrance.

Adelia: Thou art again wrong. Der, die, oder das Hand?

Tinglius: Das Hand.

(Rises in seat and looks imploringly toward door.)

Adelia: Wrong again. Why this unseemly behavior, O Tinglius?

ENTER PENCETHENES, quietly. Goes toward desk and takes dictionary. Tinglius sighs with relief.

Pencethenes, meekly taking seat: Greetings, fair Adelia. I would consult thy word book.

Adelia: Thou art welcome, Pencethenes. Tinglius, let us continue. Der, die, oder das Tisch?

Tinglius glances toward Pencethenes. The ears of Pencethenes wiggle once.

Tinglius: Der Tisch.

Adelia: Right Tinglius. Thou hast well guessed. Try another. Der, die, oder das Madchen.

Tinglius glances toward Pencethenes. The ears of Pencethenes waggle thrice.

Tinglius: Das Madchen.

Adelia: Again, hast thou well guessed. Der, die, oder das Frau?

Tinglius glances toward Pencethenes. The ears of Pencethenes waggle twice. Tinglius answers correctly. Exam. continues thus to end.

Tinglius answers all questions correctly.
At end—

Adelia: Thy Exam. is over and thou hast passed with an high grade. Tinglius, thou art a wonder. Methought thou hadst not such intelligence. Let us retire and break the glad news to Bernardo.

[Exit Ting. and Adelia.]

Pencethenes, chuckling knowingly: Yea, Tinglius, thou art a wonder. [Exit]

ACT III.

SCENE: Srofius and Pencethenes sit on high board structure with backs to audience and witness contest between Lintonians and hosts from Garfield. Shouts are heard.

Srofius: Why this unseemly shouting? Ah, Tinglius maketh another touchdown. The battle is ours. We have won, Pencethenes. Hearest thou?

Pencethenes: Yea, we have won, but what care I? What honor do I, a mere citizen, get from the victory?

ENTER howling Garfield mob. Tinglius in gridiron armor borne on shoulders of crowd. The Dutchess, Hanko, Charlo, and others in crowd.

Charlo: Tinglius, thou hittest the battle-front of the Lintonians like a ton of brick.

Hanko: Brothers, how soundest this for my writing in the yellow sheet on the morrow? "Tinglius, the mighty Garfield plunger, was easily the star of the contest. He broke through the Lintonians for gain after gain."

The Dutchess interrupting: Tinglius, my hero, thine am I for ever more. Thy gallant conduct hath won my heart.

All: All hail, Tinglius, the valiant warrior of Garfield. [Crowd Exit.]

Pencethenes, dejectedly: Brains and faithful devotion count for but little in this vain world. Tinglius picketh off the grapes while we, the master minds who gave him glory, do but grovel in the dust. Srofius, am I not right?

Srofius: Thou hast said it, O Pencethenes.

Pencethenes: But why this useless prating, Srofius? It availeth nothing. Hast thou a jitney?

Srofius: Again hast thou said.

Pencethenes: Let us hie to the Star villa and appease our hunger with a hamburger.

Srofius: Hamburger she is.

[Exit Hurriedly.]

The 1915 Class of Garfield

Old Garfield High, good-bye, good-bye,
We're going to leave you soon,
If we can pass, we Senior class,
We'll graduate in June.
We've had our fun—but that is done,
So far as you're concerned;
We've had our bumps, likewise our slumps,
That's part of what we've learned.
We hate to leave, we really grieve,
We feel attached to you;
You represent much time—how spent,
That's past, let's not review.
We've spent four years of hopes and fears
Within your classic walls;
You've done your best, we'll do the rest,
The big, wide world now calls.
To those behind, who've still to grind
For one year, two, or three,
Be kind and good, because they should
Come out as smart as we.

"Little Citizens". Carl Krietenstein and Charlo Depeugh.

NOW you have seen our book. Whether you liked it or not, you can readily appreciate that substantial financial backing was required to put it out. The men and firms whose advertisements follow were the ones who supplied this backing. Please give their ads your most careful consideration and show them that their confidence in Garfield students and Garfield patrons was not misplaced.
